TRIBUTE TO CHARLES MANDEL

● Mr. TORRICELLI. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize the remarkable accomplishments of Charles Mandel as he prepares to receive the Chaver Award from the Highland Park Conservative Temple and Center. Charlie was born in Jersey City, where he graduated from William L. Dickson High School in 1935. He then went on to graduate from Rutgers University with a degree in ceramic engineering in 1939. For the next 42 years, Charlie worked as a plant manager and ceramic engineer with the Willett Company. Following his retirement, Charlie has continued to serve as a consulting engineer for New Jersey Porcelain Company and Lenape Products Company in Trenton, New Jersey.

Charlie has been affiliated with the temple since 1953. After officially joining the temple in January 1955, he was appointed Gabbai and continues as Senior Gabbai to this day. Charlie has also served on the Bimah with every temple President from Harry Kroll to the current President, Ed Guttenplan. In addition to these duties, Charlie has played an integral role in the temple's daily management. He was elected to the Temple Board of Trustees in 1955 and has remained there continuously, as a Trustee, Recording Secretary and Financial Secretary. In recognition of his loyalty and commitment, he was granted Honorary Life Membership to the Board of Trustees, a position held by only four other people.

Charlie has been active on the Religious Committee, House Committee, Bazaar Committee, and has had the unique experiences of serving on the Rabbinical Search Committees for both Rabbi Yakov Hilsenrath and Rabbi Eliot Malomet. In addition, he was chairman of the Special Fund Raising Committee for forty years. The Special Fund Raising Committee has long been a euphemism for Bingo, which balanced the budget for forty years. Charlie's dedication to managing Bingo resulted in his giving up a myriad of social and family functions on Tuesday evenings.

There probably is not an inch of the temple building that has not benefitted from Charlie's commitment and dedication. He has always been willing to give himself to the temple in any capacity whenever and wherever called upon. The entire temple community has been enriched by Charlie's presence, and they are grateful for his support through the years.●
